

Dating: Listening comprehension activity

- 1) Millennials have problems dating because :
 - a. Nowadays due to a hectic life people don't have time to go out a lot
 - b. People are generally more likely to distance themselves from strangers
 - c. People do not want to flirt with strangers
- 2) Flirting has changed:
 - a. And you need a special training in various apps to be successful
 - b. Because it is no longer intimate
 - c. Because apps are addictive, so people spend too much time on the phone at the expense of a real conversation
- 3) The basic idea behind Tinder according to the video is:
 - a. to be able to find a romantic partner from the comfort of your couch
 - b. To keep using it in order to get as many partners as possible
 - c. To keep using the app for whatever reasons
- 4) Dating is different than before
 - a. Because people are less likely to chat people up in real life
 - b. In the past people paid more attention to their surroundings when looking for a partner
 - c. Technology has impaired our skills to observe the surroundings
- 5) People's priorities have shifted
 - a. Which was affected by the "stranger danger" philosophy while millennials were growing up
 - b. People are more career-oriented now
 - c. People do not to get married any more
- 6) Dating has always been difficult in the USA:
 - a. Because of cultural, ethnic and religious diversity
 - b. But now it's even harder because we overly rely on technology
 - c. But we face different problems than in the past