

Introduction to the course

The aim of the course is to continue with the previous two courses developing the key language skills of students at the C1-C2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

The students registered will have to work systematically with a course-book and expand their practical skills, while focusing on accuracy and language complexity.

The course-book:

CAPEL, A.; SHARP, V.; SUNDERLAND, P.; WHETTEM, E.; KINGSLEY, S. Objective Proficiency. Cambridge: CUP, 2013 (2nd edition). ISBN 978-1-107-61116-0.

SYLLABUS:

weeks 1 + 2: Unit 11– Relationships

weeks 3 + 4 Unit 12 – Scientific Advances week 5 + 6: Unit 13 – The Environment week 7 + 8: Unit 14 – Sport and Health weeks 9 + 10: Unit 15 – The World of Work

Requirements:

Doing the obligatory tasks assigned on moodle; these may be part of the credit test, which will include a 'Use of English' part and a short essay.

Passing the credit test (70 %).