

Navigate Beginner A1

Week 5 – Unit 4

Present Simple Tense

Auxiliary vs. Lexical Verbs

Have got vs. Have

Přítomný prostý čas

Pomocná vs. Významová slovesa

Rozdíl mezi slovesem Have got a Have

Examples from the Video

- Do not worry.
- I want to introduce myself.
- You already know my name is Markéta Doubravová.
- I also teach German language. I live in Prague but I come from Stříbro.
 - I work in the centre of Prague and I love it there.
 - Why don't you like football? – I don't know.
- Do you enjoy any other things? Do you like travelling? – Yes, I do.
 - I go to the cinema quite often but I don't read.
 - He also likes music.
 - They sing songs for children.
 - Does he like sport? – Yes, he does.
 - He doesn't do anything else.

Positive affirmative sentence (kladná oznamovací věta)

- I want to introduce myself.
- You already know my name is Markéta Doubravová.
- I also teach German language. I live in Prague but I come from Stříbro.
 - I work in the centre of Prague and I love it there.
 - I go to the cinema quite often but I don't read.
 - He also likes music.
- They sing songs for children.

Singular – j.č.

I
you
he, she, it

Plural – mn.č.

we
you
they

Negative forms (záporné tvary)

- Do not worry.
- Why don't you like football? – I don't know.
- I go to the cinema quite often but I don't read.
 - He doesn't do anything else.

Singular – j.č.

I
you
he, she, it

Plural – mn.č.

we
you
they

Contracted forms (stažené tvary)

Why don't you like football? – I don't know.
often but I don't read.
He doesn't do anything else.

do not = _____ does not = _____

Questions (otázky) and short answers (zkrácené odpovědi)

- Why don't you like football? – I don't know.
- Do you enjoy any other things? Do you like travelling? – Yes, I do.
 - Does he like sport? – Yes, he does.

You like travelling.