Week 2 – Units 1 and 2 – In the university café

M: Hi Šárka.

Š: Hi Markéta! It's great to see you!

M: Yeah, it's great to see you, too.

Š: Hi, how are you?

M: I'm fine.

Š: When was the last time you were here in this university café?

M: Well, actually, I think it was long time ago. I think it was last September, wasn't it.

Š: Wow. I like it here.

M: Good. What did you get?

Š: It's coffee, it's coffee with milk.

M: Hmm. I'm going to get some also for me, but without milk, because I never drink it with milk and I never drink it with sugar.

Š: Go ahead.

Š: Yeah, and how did you spend the last summer vacation?

M: Yes, I went to Croatia with my family. We always go there.

Š: Nice.

M: And what about you? Did you stay here in Prague?

Š: Yes, I did, and I had a lovely time here in Prague. I walked in the crooked streets in the city centre. I also tried a few restaurants around here and I went to the cinema with my friends. It was lovely.

M: Great! Yes, it sounds really interesting. And… Oh, sorry… sorry…

Š: Is it your phone?

M: I don't know. I don't know.

Š: Wait. What's in your bag?

M: Oh, yeah. That's some… that's my clothes, you know, for the dancing class. I go dancing on Tuesdays.

Š: Nice, but is it the T-shirt I gave you for your birthday?

M: Yes, that's right. That's right, yes, yes. That's it. I wear it often and I always, you know, take it to the dancing class.

Š: I'm happy you like it. I am happy you wear it very often.

M: Yes. Let me show you, you know, the picture from the dancing class, you know, it's my girls.

Š: Nice, nice. And, wait, let me see. Who is your dance teacher. Is it the blond woman who is wearing the yellow dress?

M: Yes, yes, that's exactly her, yes.

Š: Good, good. And is she going to teach you today?

M: Yes, of course, of course. She is teaching us… She teaches us every Tuesday.

Š: Good. So enjoy the dance class!

M: Thank you.

Š: Thanks for the picture.

M: Yeah. Let's now enjoy the coffee.

Š: Yeah, let's enjoy.
