

Week 6 – Unit 7 – Travel – Introductory Video – Video script

Šárka: Hey, how is it going?

Markéta: Good, good. How are you?

Šárka: I am fine, thanks. Summer is approaching. Have you got any plans?

Markéta: Sure. I'd like to travel, you know, with my family.

Šárka: Anything in particular on your mind?

Markéta: Not yet. At the moment we are discussing the destination. We are thinking of Greece or Italy. You've been to both of them, right?

Šárka: Yes, I have.

Markéta: And could you recommend where to go?

Šárka: And you are going in August, right?

Markéta: Yes.

Šárka: So Greece has beautiful sandy beaches, but it will be hot there.

Markéta: No...

Šárka: And also you'll have to fly there, so the flight tickets might get expensive for a family.

Markéta: That's right. We haven't thought of that.

Šárka: Yeah, Italy has some lovely beaches, too. The weather is pleasant there in summer...

Markéta: Promising.

Šárka: ... it's sunny and warm. However, the beaches will definitely be crowded ...

Markéta: Oh no.

Šárka: ... because everyone in Italy goes on holidays in August.

Markéta: Really!

Šárka: Yeah.

Markéta: Well, you know, I can't stand hot weather and I do not like crowded places either. So I might think of something else, something different. Well, actually, I have always wanted to go to Scotland. That might be a good idea, because, you know, imagine staying in an old stone house somewhere in the middle of nowhere and I believe that my husband would love the landscape as well.

Šárka: Yeah, yeah. That sounds like a nice family trip. And you might be ... even drive there or go by bus.

Markéta: Excellent idea, because it would be cheaper, you know, than flying. Do you know anybody who's been to Scotland?

Šárka: I mean, I've never been. ... Actually, my friend Laurine is from Glasgow so I can give you her phone number and you can WhatsApp her.

Markéta: That would be great idea. Thanks very much. Yeah.

Šárka: You're welcome.