About This Book

English offers perhaps the richest vocabulary of all languages, in part because its words are culled from so many languages. It is a shame that we do not tap this rich source more often in our daily conversation to express ourselves more clearly and precisely.

There are of course thesauruses but they mainly list common words. Other vocabulary books list difficult, esoteric words that we quickly forget or feel self-conscious using. However, there is a bounty of choice words between the common and the esoteric that often seem to be just on the tip of our tongue. Vocabulary 4000 brings these words to the fore.

Whenever possible, one-word definitions are used. Although this makes a definition less precise, it also makes it easier to remember. Many common words appear in the list of words, but with their less common meanings. For example, the common meaning of champion is “winner.” A less common meaning for champion is to support or fight for someone else. (Think of the phrase “to champion a cause.”) This is the meaning that would be used in the list.

As you read through the list of words, mark any that you do not know with a check mark. Then when you read through the list again, mark any that you do not remember with two checks. Continue in this manner until you have learned the words.

There are four types of quizzes interspersed in the word list: Matching, Antonyms, Analogies, and Sentence Completions. The Matching quizzes, review words that were just introduced. All the other quizzes contain words from any part of the list.

Word Analysis

Word analysis (etymology) is the process of separating a word into its parts and then using the meanings of those parts to deduce the meaning of the original word. Take, for example, the word INTERMINABLE. It is made up of three parts: a prefix IN (not), a root TERMIN (stop), and a suffix ABLE (can do). Therefore, by word analysis, INTERMINABLE means “not able to stop.” This is not the literal meaning of INTERMINABLE (endless), but it is close enough. For another example, consider the word RETROSPECT. It is made up of the prefix RETRO (back) and the root SPECT (to look). Hence, RETROSPECT means “to look back (in time), to contemplate.”

Word analysis is very effective in decoding the meaning of words. However, you must be careful in its application since words do not always have the same meaning as the sum of the meanings of their parts. In fact, on occasion words can have the opposite meaning of their parts. For example, by word analysis the word AWFUL should mean “full of awe,” or awe-inspiring. But over the years it has come to mean just the opposite—terrible. In spite of the shortcomings, word analysis gives the correct meaning of a word (or at least a hint of it) far more often than not and therefore is a useful tool.

Examples:

INDEFATIGABLE

Analysis: IN (not); DE (thoroughly); FATIG (fatigue); ABLE (can do)
Meaning: cannot be fatigued, tireless

CIRCUMSPECT

Analysis: CIRCUM (around); SPECT (to look)
Meaning: to look around, that is, to be cautious

ANTIPATHY

Analysis: ANTI (against); PATH (to feel); Y (noun suffix)
Meaning: to feel strongly against something, to hate

OMNISCIENT

Analysis: OMNI (all); SCI (to know); ENT (noun suffix)
Meaning: all-knowing

Following are some of the most useful prefixes, roots, and suffixes.

18.

APATHETIC

Analysis: A (without); PATH (to feel); IC (adjective ending)
Meaning: Without feeling; to be uninterested. (The apathetic voters.)

Idiom & Usage

The field of grammar is huge and complex—tomes have been written on the subject. This complexity should be no surprise since grammar deals with the process of communication.

Usage concerns how we choose our words and how we express our thoughts: in other words, are the connections between the words in a sentence logically sound, and are they expressed in a way that conforms to standard idiom? We will study six major categories:

- Pronoun Errors
- Subject-Verb Agreement
- Misplaced Modifiers
- Faulty Parallelism
- Faulty Verb Tense
- Faulty Idiom

PRONOUN ERRORS

A pronoun is a word that stands for a noun, known as the antecedent of the pronoun. The key point for the use of pronouns is this:

- Pronouns must agree with their antecedents in both number (singular or plural) and person (1st, 2nd, or 3rd).

Example:

Steve has yet to receive his degree.

Here, the pronoun his refers to the noun Steve.

Following is a list of the most common pronouns:

PRONOUNS

Singular
I, me
she, her he, him
it anyone either
each many a nothing
one another everything
mine
his, hers
this that

Plural
we, us they them
these those some that both ourselves any many few several others

Both Singular and Plural any none
all most more who which what you

Reference

- A pronoun should be plural when it refers to two nouns joined by and.

Example:

Jane and Katarina believe they passed the final exam.

The plural pronoun they refers to the compound subject Jane and Katarina.

- A pronoun should be singular when it refers to two nouns joined by or or nor.

Faulty Usage

Neither Jane nor Katarina believes they passed the final.

Correct

Neither Jane nor Katarina believes she passed the final.

- A pronoun should refer to one and only one noun or compound noun.

This is probably the most common pronoun error. If a pronoun follows two nouns, it is often unclear which of the nouns the pronoun refers to.

Faulty Usage

The breakup of the Soviet Union has left nuclear weapons in the hands of unstable, nascent countries. It is imperative to world security that they be destroyed.

Although one is unlikely to take the sentence to mean that the countries must be destroyed, that interpretation is possible from the structure of the sentence. It is easily corrected:

The breakup of the Soviet Union has left nuclear weapons in the hands of unstable, nascent countries. It is imperative to world security that these weapons be destroyed.

Faulty Usage

In Somalia, they have become jaded by the constant warfare.

This construction is faulty because they does not have an antecedent. The sentence can be corrected by replacing they with people:

In Somalia, people have become jaded by the constant warfare.

Better:

The people of Somalia have become jaded by the constant warfare.

- In addition to agreeing with its antecedent in number, a pronoun must agree with its antecedent in person.

Faulty Usage

One enters this world with no responsibilities. Then comes school, then work, then marriage and family. No wonder, you look longingly to retirement.

In this sentence, the subject has changed from one (third person) to you (second person). To correct the sentence either replace one with you or vice versa:

You enter this world with no responsibilities. Then comes school, then work, then marriage and family. No wonder, you look longingly to retirement.

One enters this world with no responsibilities. Then comes school, then work, then marriage and family. No wonder, one looks longingly to retirement.

Drill I

In each of the following sentences, part or all of the sentence is underlined. The answer-choices offer five ways of phrasing the underlined part. If you think the sentence as written is better than the alternatives, choose A, which merely repeats the underlined part; otherwise choose one of the alternatives. Answers begin on page 142.

1. Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (A) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (B) If the Administration had not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (C) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, it would have been rated an A.
  - (D) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on its budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (E) If the President had not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, the Administration's first year in office would have been rated an A.
2. The new law requires a manufacturer to immediately notify their customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer's products.

5. Geologists in California have discovered a fault near the famous San Andreas Fault, one that they believe to be a trigger for major quakes on the San Andreas.
- (A) one that they believe to be a trigger for
  - (B) one they believe to be a trigger for
  - (C) one that they believe triggers
  - (D) that they believe to be a trigger for
  - (E) one they believe acts as a trigger for
6. A bite from the tsetse fly invariably paralyzes its victims unless an antidote is administered within two hours.
- (A) its victims unless an antidote is administered
  - (B) its victims unless an antidote can be administered
  - (C) its victims unless an antidote was administered
  - (D) its victims unless an antidote is administered to the victims
  - (E) its victims unless they receive an antidote

SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT

Within a sentence there are certain requirements for the relationship between the subject and the verb.

- The subject and verb must agree both in number and person.

Example:

We have surpassed our sales goal of one million dollars.

Here, the first person plural verb have agrees with its first person plural subject we.

Note, ironically, third person singular verbs often end in s or es:

He seems to be fair.

- Intervening phrases and clauses have no effect on subject-verb agreement.

Example:

Only one of the President's nominees was confirmed.

Here, the singular verb was agrees with its singular subject one. The intervening prepositional phrase of the President's nominees has no effect on the number or person of the verb.

- When the subject and verb are reversed, they still must agree in both number and person.

Example:

Attached are copies of the contract.

Here, the plural verb are attached agrees with its plural subject copies. The sentence could be rewritten as

Copies of the contract are attached.

- (D) Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—the book's protagonists—each has
- (E) Each of the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—could have had

MISPLACED MODIFIERS

- As a general rule, a modifier should be placed as close as possible to what it modifies.

Example:

Following are some useful tips for protecting your person and property from the FBI.

As written, the sentence implies that the FBI is a threat to your person and property. To correct the sentence put the modifier from the FBI next to the word it modifies, tips:

Following are some useful tips from the FBI for protecting your person and property.

- When a phrase begins a sentence, make sure that it modifies the subject of the sentence.

Example:

Coming around the corner, a few moments passed before I could recognize my old home.

As worded, the sentence implies that the moments were coming around the corner. The sentence can be corrected as follows:

As I came around the corner, a few moments passed before I could recognize my old home.

or

Coming around the corner, I paused a few moments before I could recognize my old home.

 (D) Ansel Adams, in 1945 began his photographic career, traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest.
 (E) In 1945, Ansel Adams began his photographic career, traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest.

FAULTY PARALLELISM

- For a sentence to be parallel, similar elements must be expressed in similar form.
- When two adjectives modify the same noun, they should have similar forms.

Example:

The topology course was both rigorous and a challenge.

Since both rigorous and a challenge are modifying course, they should have the same form:

The topology course was both rigorous and challenging.

- When a series of clauses is listed, the verbs in each clause must have the same form.

Example:

During his trip to Europe, the President will discuss ways to stimulate trade, offer economic aid, and trying to forge a new coalition with moderate forces in Russia.

In this example, the first two verbs, discuss and offer, are active. But the third verb in the series, trying, is passive. The form of the verb should be active:

During his trip to Europe, the President will discuss ways to stimulate trade, offer economic aid, and try to forge a new coalition with moderate forces in Russia.

- When the first half of a sentence has a certain structure, the second half should preserve that structure.

Example:

To acknowledge that one is an alcoholic is taking the first and hardest step to recovery.

The first half of the above sentence has an infinitive structure, to acknowledge, so the second half must have a similar structure:

To acknowledge that one is an alcoholic is to take the first and hardest step to recovery.

FAULTY VERB TENSE

A verb has four principal parts:

1. Present Tense

- a. Used to express present tense.

He studies hard.

- b. Used to express general truths.

During a recession, people are cautious about taking on more debt.

- c. Used with will or shall to express future time.

He will take the SAT next year.

2. Past Tense

- a. Used to express past tense.

He took the SAT last year.

3. Past Participle

- a. Used to form the present perfect tense, which indicates that an action was started in the past and its effects are continuing in the present. It is formed using have or has and the past participle of the verb.

He has prepared thoroughly for the SAT.

- b. Used to form the past perfect tense, which indicates that an action was completed before another past action. It is formed using had and the past participle of the verb.

He had prepared thoroughly before taking the SAT.

- c. Used to form the future perfect tense, which indicates that an action will be completed before another future action. It is formed using will have or shall have and the past participle of the verb.

He will have prepared thoroughly before taking the SAT.

4. Present Participle (-ing form of the verb)

- a. Used to form the present progressive tense, which indicates that an action is ongoing. It is formed using is, am, or are and the present participle of the verb.

He is preparing thoroughly for the SAT.

- b. Used to form the past progressive tense, which indicates that an action was in progress in the past. It is formed using was or were and the present participle of the verb.

He was preparing for the SAT.

- c. Used to form the future progressive tense, which indicates that an action will be in progress in the future. It is formed using will be or shall be and the present participle of the verb.

He will be preparing thoroughly for the SAT.

PASSIVE VOICE

The passive voice removes the subject from the sentence. It is formed with the verb to be and the past participle of the main verb.

Passive:

The bill was resubmitted by the Senator.

Active:

The Senator has resubmitted the bill.

Unless you want to de-emphasize the doer of an action, you should favor the active voice.

IDIOM & USAGE

Accept/Except:

Accept means “to agree to” or “to receive.” Except means “to object to” or “to leave out.”

We will accept (receive) your manuscript for review.

No parking is allowed, except (leave out) on holidays.

Account for:

When explaining something, the correct idiom is account for:

We had to account for all the missing money.

When receiving blame or credit, the correct idiom is account to:

You will have to account to the state for your crimes.

Adapted to/for/from:

Adapted to means “naturally suited for.” Adapted for means “created to be suited for.” Adapted from means “changed to be suited for.”

The polar bear is adapted to the subzero temperatures.

For any “New Order” to be successful, it must be adapted for the continually changing world power structure.

Lucas’ latest release is adapted from the 1950 B-movie “Attack of the Amazons.”

Affect/Effect:

Effect is a noun meaning “a result.”

Increased fighting will be the effect of the failed peace conference.

Affect is a verb meaning “to influence.”

The rain affected their plans for a picnic.

All ready vs. Already:

All ready means “everything is ready.”

Already means “earlier.”

Alot vs. A lot:

Alot is nonstandard; a lot is the correct form.

Among/Between:

Between should be used when referring to two things, and among should be used when referring to more than two things.

The young lady must choose between two suitors.

The fault is spread evenly among the three defendants.

Being that vs. Since:

Being that is nonstandard and should be replaced by since.

(Faulty) Being that darkness was fast approaching, we had to abandon the search.

(Better) Since darkness was fast approaching, we had to abandon the search.

Beside/Besides:

Adding an s to beside completely changes its meaning: Beside means “next to.” Besides means “in addition.”

We sat beside (next to) the host.

Besides (in addition), money was not even an issue in the contract negotiations.

Center on vs. Center around:

Center around is colloquial. It should not be used in formal writing.

(Faulty) The dispute centers around the effects of undocumented workers.

(Correct) The dispute centers on the effects of undocumented workers.

Conform to (not with):

Stewart's writing does not conform to standard literary conventions.

Consensus of opinion:

Consensus of opinion is redundant: consensus means "general agreement."

Correspond to/with:

Correspond to means "in agreement with":

The penalty does not correspond to the severity of the crime.

Correspond with means "to exchange letters":

He corresponded with many of the top European leaders of his time.

Different from/Different than:

The preferred form is different from. Only in rare cases is different than acceptable.

The new Cadillacs are very different from the imported luxury cars.

Double negatives:

(Faulty) Scarcely nothing was learned during the seminar.

(Better) Scarcely anything was learned during the seminar.

Doubt that vs. Doubt whether:

Doubt whether is nonstandard.

(Faulty) I doubt whether his new business will succeed.

(Correct) I doubt that his new business will succeed.

Farther/Further:

Use farther when referring to distance, and use further when referring to degree.

They went no further (degree) than necking.

He threw the discs farther (distance) than the top seated competitor.

Fewer/Less:

Use fewer when referring to a number of items. Use less when referring to a continuous quantity.

In the past, we had fewer options.

The impact was less than what was expected.

Identical with (not to):

This bid is identical with the one submitted by you.

In contrast to (not of):

In contrast to the conservative attitudes of her time, Mae West was quite provocative.

Independent of (not from):

The judiciary is independent of the other branches of government.

Not only ... but also:

In this construction, but cannot be replaced with and.

(Faulty) Peterson is not only the top salesman in the department and also the most proficient.

(Correct) Peterson is not only the top salesman in the department but also the most proficient.

On account of vs. Because:

Because is always better than the circumlocution on account of.

(Poor) On account of his poor behavior, he was expelled.

(Better) Because he behaved poorly, he was expelled.

One another/Each other:

Each other should be used when referring to two things, and one another should be used when referring to more than two things.

The members of the basketball team (more than two) congratulated one another on their victory.

The business partners (two) congratulated each other on their successful first year.

Plus vs. And:

Do not use plus as a conjunction meaning and.

(Faulty) His contributions to this community are considerable, plus his character is beyond reproach.

(Correct) His contributions to this community are considerable, and his character is beyond reproach.

Note: Plus can be used to mean and so long as it is not being used as a conjunction.

(Acceptable) His generous financial contribution plus his donated time has made this project a success.

In this sentence, plus is being used as a preposition. Note that the verb has is singular because an intervening prepositional phrase (plus his donated time) does not affect subject verb agreement.

Regard vs. Regards:

Unless you are giving best wishes to someone, you should use regard.

(Faulty) In regards to your letter, we would be interested in distributing your product.

(Correct) In regard to your letter, we would be interested in distributing your product.

Regardless vs. Irregardless:

Regardless means “notwithstanding.” Hence, the “ir” in irregardless is redundant. Regardless is the correct form.

Retroactive to (not from):

The correct idiom is retroactive to:

The tax increase is retroactive to February.

Speak to/with:

To speak to someone is to tell them something:

We spoke to Jennings about the alleged embezzlement.

To speak with someone is to discuss something with them:

Steve spoke with his friend Dave for hours yesterday.

The reason is because:

This structure is redundant. Equally common and doubly redundant is the structure the reason why is because.

(Poor) The reason why I could not attend the party is because I had to work.

(Better) I could not attend the party because I had to work.

Whether vs. As to whether:

The circumlocution as to whether should be replaced by whether.

(Poor) The United Nations has not decided as to whether to authorize a trade embargo.

(Better) The United Nations has not decided whether to authorize a trade embargo.

Whether vs. If:

Whether introduces a choice; if introduces a condition. A common mistake is to use if to present a choice.

(Faulty) He inquired if we had decided to keep the gift.

(Correct) He inquired whether we had decided to keep the gift.

  - (E) The chemical spill will be delaying the commute into the city by as much as 2 hours.

Points to Remember

1. A pronoun should be plural when it refers to two nouns joined by and.
2. A pronoun should be singular when it refers to two nouns joined by or or nor.
3. A pronoun should refer to one and only one noun or compound noun.
4. A pronoun must agree with its antecedent in both number and person.
5. The subject and verb must agree both in number and person.
6. Intervening phrases and clauses have no effect on subject-verb agreement.
7. When the subject and verb are reversed, they still must agree in both number and person.
8. As a general rule, a modifier should be placed as close as possible to what it modifies.
9. When a phrase begins a sentence, make sure that it modifies the subject of the sentence.
10. For a sentence to be parallel, similar elements must be expressed in similar form.
11. When two adjectives modify the same noun, they should have similar forms.
12. When a series of clauses is listed, the verbs must be in the same form.
13. When the first half of a sentence has a certain structure, the second half should preserve that structure.

14. A verb has four principal parts:

I. Present Tense

- a. Used to express present tense.
- b. Used to express general truths.
- c. Used with will or shall to express future time.

II. Past Tense

- a. Used to express past tense.

III. Past Participle

- a. Used to form the present perfect tense, which indicates that an action was started in the past and its effects are continuing in the present. It is formed using have or has and the past participle of the verb.
- b. Used to form the past perfect tense, which indicates that an action was completed before another past action. It is formed using had and the past participle of the verb.
- c. Used to form the future perfect tense, which indicates that an action will be completed before another future action. It is formed using will have or shall have and the past participle of the verb.

IV. Present Participle (-ing form of the verb)

- a. Used to form the present progressive tense, which indicates that an action is ongoing. It is formed using is, am, or are and the present participle of the verb.
- b. Used to form the past progressive tense, which indicates that an action was in progress in the past. It is formed using was or were and the present participle of the verb.
- c. Used to form the future progressive tense, which indicates that an action will be in progress in the future. It is formed using will be or shall be and the present participle of the verb.

15. Unless you want to de-emphasize the doer of an action, you should favor the active voice.

Solutions to Drill I

1. Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
- (A) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (B) If the Administration had not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (C) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, it would have been rated an A.
  - (D) Had the President's Administration not lost the vote on its budget reduction package, his first year in office would have been rated an A.
  - (E) If the President had not lost the vote on the budget reduction package, the Administration's first year in office would have been rated an A.

Choice (A) is incorrect because his appears to refer to the President, but the subject of the subordinate clause is the President's Administration, not the President.

Choice (B) changes the structure of the sentence, but retains the same flawed reference.

In choice (C), it can refer to either the President's Administration or the budget reduction package. Thus, the reference is ambiguous.

Choice (D) adds another pronoun, its, but still retains the same flawed reference.

Choice (E) corrects the flawed reference by removing all pronouns. The answer is (E).

2. The new law requires a manufacturer to immediately notify their customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer's products.
- (A) to immediately notify their customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer's products.
  - (B) to immediately notify customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of their products.
  - (C) to immediately, and without delay, notify its customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacture's products.
  - (D) to immediately notify whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer's products that the customers may have bought.
  - (E) to immediately notify its customers whenever the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer's products.

Choice (A) is incorrect because the plural pronoun their cannot have the singular noun a manufacturer as its antecedent.

Although choice (B) corrects the given false reference, it introduces another one. Their can now refer to either customers or government, neither of which would make sense in this context.

Choice (C) also corrects the false reference, but it introduces a redundancy: immediately means “without delay.”

Choice (D) corrects the false reference, but its structure is very awkward. The direct object of a verb should be as close to the verb as possible. In this case, the verb notify is separated from its direct object customers by the clause “that the government is contemplating a forced recall of any of the manufacturer’s products that.”

Choice (E) is correct because the singular pronoun its has the singular noun a manufacturer as its antecedent. The answer is (E).

3. World War II taught the United States the folly of punishing a vanquished aggressor; so after the war, they enacted the Marshall Plan to rebuild Germany.
- (A) after the war, they enacted the Marshall Plan to rebuild Germany.
  - (B) after the war, the Marshall Plan was enacted to rebuild Germany.
  - (C) after the war, the Marshall Plan was enacted by the United States to rebuild Germany.
  - (D) after the war, the United States enacted the Marshall Plan to rebuild Germany.
  - (E) after the war, the United States enacted the Marshall Plan in order to rebuild Germany.

Choice (A) is incorrect. Since United States is denoting the collective country, it is singular and therefore cannot be correctly referred to by the plural pronoun they.

Choice (B) is not technically incorrect, but it lacks precision since it does not state who enacted the Marshall Plan. Further, it uses a passive construction: “was enacted.”

Choice (C) states who enacted the Marshall Plan, but it retains the passive construction “was enacted.”

Choice (E) is second-best. The phrase “in order” is unnecessary.

Choice (D) corrects the false reference by replacing they with the United States. Further, it uses the active verb enacted instead of the passive verb was enacted. The answer is (D).

4. In the 1950's, integration was an anathema to most Americans; now, however, most Americans accept it as desirable.
- (A) to most Americans; now, however, most Americans accept it as desirable.
  - (B) to most Americans, now, however, most Americans accept it.
  - (C) to most Americans; now, however, most Americans are desirable of it.
  - (D) to most Americans; now, however, most Americans accepted it as desirable.
  - (E) to most Americans. Now, however, most Americans will accept it as desirable.

The sentence is not incorrect as written. Hence, the answer is choice (A).

Choice (B) creates a run-on sentence by replacing the semicolon with a comma. Without a connecting word—and, or, but, etc.—two independent clauses must be joined by a semicolon or written as two separate sentences. Also, deleting “as desirable” changes the meaning of the sentence.

Choice (C) uses a very awkward construction: are desirable of it.

Choice (D) contains an error in tense. The sentence progresses from the past to the present, so the verb in the second clause should be accept, not accepted.

Choice (E) writes the two clauses as separate sentences, which is allowable, but it also changes the tense of the second clause to the future: will accept.

5. Geologists in California have discovered a fault near the famous San Andreas Fault, one that they believe to be a trigger for major quakes on the San Andreas.
- (A) one that they believe to be a trigger for
  - (B) one they believe to be a trigger for
  - (C) one that they believe triggers
  - (D) that they believe to be a trigger for
  - (E) one they believe acts as a trigger for

Choice (A) is incorrect since the relative pronoun that is redundant: the pronoun one, which refers to the newly discovered fault, is sufficient.

Although choice (C) reads more smoothly, it still contains the double pronouns.

Choice (D) is incorrect. Generally, relative pronouns such as that refer to whole ideas in previous clauses or sentences. Since the second sentence is about the fault and not its discovery, the pronoun that is appropriate.

Choice (E) is very tempting. It actually reads better than choice (A), but it contains a subtle flaw. One is the direct object of the verb believes and therefore cannot be the subject of the verb acts. Since they clearly is not the subject, the verb acts is without a subject.

Choice (B) has both the correct pronoun and the correct verb form. The answer is (B).

6. A bite from the tsetse fly invariably paralyzes its victims unless an antidote is administered within two hours.
- (A) its victims unless an antidote is administered
  - (B) its victims unless an antidote can be administered
  - (C) its victims unless an antidote was administered
  - (D) its victims unless an antidote is administered to the victims
  - (E) its victims unless they receive an antidote

Choice (A) is incorrect since it is unclear whether the victim or the fly should receive the antidote.

Choice (B) is incorrect since is is more direct than can be.

Choice (C) is incorrect. A statement of fact should be expressed in the present tense, not the past tense.

Choice (D) is wordy. A pronoun should be used for the phrase the victims.

Choice (E) is the answer since they correctly identifies who should receive the antidote.

Solutions to Drill II

1. The rising cost of government bureaucracy have made it all but impossible to reign in the budget deficit.
- (A) The rising cost
  - (B) Since the rising costs
  - (C) Because of the rising costs
  - (D) The rising costs
  - (E) Rising cost

Choice (A) is incorrect because the plural verb have does not agree with its singular subject the rising cost.

Both (B) and (C) are incorrect because they turn the sentence into a fragment.

Choice (E) is incorrect because rising cost is still singular.

Choice (D) is the correct answer since now the plural verb have agrees with its plural subject the rising costs.

2. In a co-publication agreement, ownership of both the material and its means of distribution are equally shared by the parties.
- (A) its means of distribution are equally shared by the parties.
  - (B) its means of distribution are shared equally by each of the parties.
  - (C) its means of distribution is equally shared by the parties.
  - (D) their means of distribution is equally shared by the parties.
  - (E) the means of distribution are equally shared by the parties.

Choice (A) is incorrect. Recall that intervening phrases have no effect on subject-verb agreement. In this sentence, the subject ownership is singular, but the verb are is plural. Dropping the intervening phrase clearly shows that the sentence is ungrammatical:

In a co-publication, agreement ownership are equally shared by the parties.

Choice (B) is incorrect. Neither adding each of nor interchanging shared and equally addresses the issue of subject-verb agreement.

Choice (D) contains a faulty pronoun reference. The antecedent of the plural pronoun their would be the singular noun material.

Choice (E) is incorrect since it still contains the plural verb are. The answer is choice (C).

3. The rise in negative attitudes toward foreigners indicate that the country is becoming less tolerant, and therefore that the opportunities are ripe for extremist groups to exploit the illegal immigration problem.
- (A) indicate that the country is becoming less tolerant, and therefore that
  - (B) indicates that the country is becoming less tolerant, and therefore
  - (C) indicates that the country is becoming less tolerant, and therefore that
  - (D) indicates that the country is being less tolerant, and therefore
  - (E) indicates that the country is becoming less tolerant of and therefore that

Choice (A) has two flaws. First, the subject of the sentence the rise is singular, and therefore the verb indicate should not be plural. Second, the comma indicates that the sentence is made up of two independent clauses, but the relative pronoun that immediately following therefore forms a subordinate clause.

Choice (C) corrects the number of the verb, but retains the subordinating relative pronoun that.

Choice (D) corrects the number of the verb and eliminates the subordinating relative pronoun that. However, the verb being is less descriptive than the verb becoming: As negative attitudes toward foreigners increase, the country becomes correspondingly less tolerant. Being does not capture this notion of change.

Choice (E) corrects the verb's number, and by dropping the comma, makes the subordination allowable. However, it introduces the preposition of which does not have an object: less tolerant of what?

Choice (B) both corrects the verb's number and removes the subordinating relative pronoun that. The answer is (B).

4. The harvest of grapes in the local valleys decreased in 1990 for the third straight year but were still at a robust level.
- (A) The harvest of grapes in the local valleys decreased in 1990 for the third straight year but were
  - (B) The harvest of grapes in the local valleys began to decrease in 1990 for the third straight year but were
  - (C) In 1990, the harvest of grapes in the local valleys decreased for the third straight year but were
  - (D) The harvest of grapes in the local valleys decreased for the third straight year in 1990 but was
  - (E) The harvest of grapes in the local valleys began decreasing in 1990 for the third straight year but was

Choice (A) is incorrect since the singular subject the harvest requires a singular verb, not the plural verb were.

Choice (B) is illogical since it states that the harvest began to decrease in 1990 and then it states that it was the third straight year of decrease.

In choice (C) the plural verb were still does not agree with its singular subject the harvest.

Choice (E) contains the same flaw as choice (B).

Choice (D) has the singular verb was agreeing with its singular subject the harvest. Further, it places the phrase in 1990 more naturally. The answer is (D).

5. Each of the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—has a powerful, dynamic personality.

- (A) Each of the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—has
- (B) Each of the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—have
- (C) All the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—has
- (D) Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—the book's protagonists—each has
- (E) Each of the book's protagonists—Mark Streit, Mary Eby, and Dr. Thomas—could have had

The sentence is grammatical as written. The answer is (A).

When each, every, or many a precedes two or more subjects linked by and, they separate the subjects and the verb is singular. Hence, in choice (B) the plural verb have is incorrect.

Choice (C) is incorrect since the singular verb has does not agree with the plural subject all.

When each follows a plural subject it does not separate the subjects and the verb remains plural. Hence, in choice (D) the singular verb has is incorrect.

Choice (E) also changes the meaning of the original sentence, which states that the protagonist do have powerful, dynamic personalities.

Solutions to Drill III

1. By focusing on poverty, the other causes of crime—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.—have been overlooked by sociologists.
- (A) the other causes of crime—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.—have been overlooked by sociologists.
  - (B) the other causes of crime have been overlooked by sociologists—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.
  - (C) there are other causes of crime that have been overlooked by sociologists—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.
  - (D) crimes—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.—have been overlooked by sociologists.
  - (E) sociologists have overlooked the other causes of crime—such as the breakup of the nuclear family, changing morals, the loss of community, etc.

Choice (A) is incorrect since it implies that the other causes of crime are doing the focusing.

Choice (B) has the same flaw.

Choice (C) is incorrect. The phrase by focusing on poverty must modify the subject of the sentence, but there cannot be the subject since the construction there are is used to introduce a subject.

Choice (D) implies that crimes are focusing on poverty.

Choice (E) puts the subject of the sentence sociologists immediately next to its modifying phrase by focusing on poverty. The answer is (E).

2. Using the Hubble telescope, previously unknown galaxies are now being charted.
- (A) Using the Hubble telescope, previously unknown galaxies are now being charted.
  - (B) Previously unknown galaxies are now being charted, using the Hubble telescope.
  - (C) Using the Hubble telescope, previously unknown galaxies are now being charted by astronomers.
  - (D) Using the Hubble telescope, astronomers are now charting previously unknown galaxies.
  - (E) With the aid of the Hubble telescope, previously unknown galaxies are now being charted.

Choice (A) is incorrect because the phrase using the Hubble telescope does not have a noun to modify.

Choice (B) is incorrect because the phrase using the Hubble telescope still does not have a noun to modify.

Choice (C) offers a noun, astronomers, but it is too far from the phrase using the Hubble telescope.

In choice (E), the phrase with the aid of the Hubble telescope does not have a noun to modify.

Choice (D) offers a noun, astronomers, and places it immediately after the modifying phrase using the Hubble telescope. The answer is (D).

3. The bitter cold the Midwest is experiencing is potentially life threatening to stranded motorists unless well-insulated with protective clothing.
- (A) stranded motorists unless insulated
  - (B) stranded motorists unless being insulated
  - (C) stranded motorists unless they are insulated
  - (D) stranded motorists unless there is insulation
  - (E) the stranded motorist unless insulated

Choice (A) is incorrect. As worded, the sentence implies that the cold should be well insulated.

Choice (B) is awkward; besides, it still implies that the cold should be well insulated.

Choice (D) does not indicate what should be insulated.

Choice (E), like choices (A) and (B), implies that the cold should be well insulated.

Choice (C) is the answer since it correctly implies that the stranded motorists should be well insulated with protective clothing.

4. Traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest, in 1945 Ansel Adams began his photographic career.
- (A) Traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest, in 1945 Ansel Adams began his photographic career.
  - (B) In 1945, Ansel Adams began his photographic career, traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest.
  - (C) Having traveled across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest, in 1945 Ansel Adams began his photographic career.
  - (D) Ansel Adams, in 1945 began his photographic career, traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest.
  - (E) Traveling across and shooting the vast expanse of the Southwest, Ansel Adams began his photographic career in 1945.

Choice (A) has two flaws. First, the introductory phrase is too long. Second, the subject Ansel Adams should immediately follow the introductory phrase since it was Ansel Adams—not the year 1945—who was traveling and shooting the Southwest.

Choice (B) is incorrect because the phrase “traveling across... Southwest” is too far from its subject Ansel Adams. As written, the sentence seems to imply that the photographic career was traveling across and shooting the Southwest.

Choice (C) is inconsistent in verb tense. Further, it implies that Adams began his photographic career after he traveled across the Southwest.

Choice (D) is awkward.

The best answer is choice (E).

Solutions to Drill IV

1. Common knowledge tells us that sensible exercise and eating properly will result in better health.
- (A) eating properly will result
  - (B) proper diet resulted
  - (C) dieting will result
  - (D) proper diet results
  - (E) eating properly results

Choice (A) is incorrect since eating properly (verb-adverb) is not parallel to sensible exercise (adjective-noun).

Choice (B) offers two parallel nouns, exercise and diet. However, a general truth should be expressed in the present tense, not in the past tense.

Choice (C) is not parallel since it pairs the noun exercise with the gerund (a verb acting as a noun) dieting.

Choice (E) makes the same mistake as choice (A).

Choice (D) offers two parallel nouns—exercise and diet—and two parallel verbs—tells and results. The answer is (D).

2. This century began with war brewing in Europe, the industrial revolution well-established, and a nascent communication age.
- (A) war brewing in Europe, the industrial revolution well-established, and a nascent communication age.
  - (B) war brewing in Europe, the industrial revolution surging, and a nascent communication age.
  - (C) war in Europe, the industrial revolution well-established, and a nascent communication age.
  - (D) war brewing in Europe, the industrial revolution well-established, and the communication age beginning.
  - (E) war brewing in Europe, the industrial revolution well-established, and saw the birth of the communication age.

Choice (A) is incorrect. Although the first two phrases, war brewing in Europe and the industrial revolution well-established, have different structures, the thoughts are parallel. However, the third phrase, and a nascent communication age, is not parallel to the first two.

Choice (B) does not make the third phrase parallel to the first two.

Choice (C) changes the meaning of the sentence: the new formulation states that war already existed in Europe while the original sentence states that war was only developing.

Choice (E) is not parallel since the first two phrases in the series are noun phrases, but saw the birth of the communication age is a verb phrase. When a word introduces a series, each element of the series must agree with the introductory word. You can test the correctness of a phrase in a series by dropping the other phrases and checking whether the remaining phrase agrees with the introductory word. In this series, each phrase must be the object of the preposition with:

This century began with war brewing in Europe

This century began with the industrial revolution well-established

This century began with saw the birth of the communication age

In this form, it is clear the verb saw cannot be the object of the preposition with.

Choice (D) offers three phrases in parallel form. The answer is (D).

3. It is often better to try repairing an old car than to junk it.

- (A) to try repairing an old car than to junk it.
- (B) to repair an old car than to have it junked.
- (C) to try repairing an old car than to junking it.
- (D) to try and repair an old car than to junk it.
- (E) to try to repair an old car than to junk it.

Choice (A) is incorrect since the verb repairing is not parallel to the verb junk.

In choice (B), the construction have it junked is awkward. Further, it changes the original construction from active to passive.

Choice (C) offers a parallel construction (repairing/junking), but it is awkward.

Choice (D) also offers a parallel construction (repair/junk), but the construction try and is not idiomatic.

Choice (E) offers a parallel construction (repair/junk), and the correct idiom—try to. The answer is (E).

4. Jurassic Park, written by Michael Crichton, and which was first printed in 1988, is a novel about a theme park of the future in which dinosaurs roam free.
- (A) Jurassic Park, written by Michael Crichton, and which was first printed in 1988,
  - (B) Jurassic Park, written by Michael Crichton and first printed in 1988,
  - (C) Jurassic Park, which was written by Michael Crichton, and which was first printed in 1988,
  - (D) Written by Michael Crichton and first printed in 1988, Jurassic Park
  - (E) Jurassic Park, which was written by Michael Crichton and first printed in 1988,

Choice (A) is incorrect since the verb written is not parallel to the construction which was ... printed.

Choice (B) is the correct answer since the sentence is concise and the verb written is parallel to the verb printed.

Choice (C) does offer a parallel structure (which was written/which was printed); however, choice (B) is more concise.

Choice (D) rambles. The introduction Written by ... 1988 is too long.

Choice (E) also offers a parallel structure (which was written/[which was] printed); however, choice (B) again is more concise. Note that which was need not be repeated for the sentence to be parallel.

Solutions to Drill V

1. In the past few years and to this day, many teachers of math and science had chosen to return to the private sector.
- (A) had chosen to return to the private sector.
  - (B) having chosen to return to the private sector.
  - (C) chose to return to the private sector.
  - (D) have chosen to return to the private sector.
  - (E) have chosen returning to the private sector.

Choice (A) is incorrect because it uses the past perfect had chosen, which describes an event that has been completed before another event. But the sentence implies that teachers have and are continuing to return to the private sector. Hence, the present perfect tense should be used.

Choice (B) is incorrect because it uses the present progressive tense having chosen, which describes an ongoing event. Although this is the case, it does not capture the fact that the event began in the past.

Choice (C) is incorrect because it uses the simple past chose, which describes a past event. But again, the sentence implies that the teachers are continuing to opt for the private sector.

Choice (D) is the correct answer because it uses the present perfect have chosen to describe an event that occurred in the past and is continuing into the present.

Choice (E) is incorrect because it leaves the thought in the sentence uncompleted.

2. Most of the homes that were destroyed in last summer's brush fires were built with wood-shake roofs.
- (A) Most of the homes that were destroyed in last summer's brush fires were
  - (B) Last summer, brush fires destroyed most of the homes that were
  - (C) Most of the homes that were destroyed in last summer's brush fires had been
  - (D) Most of the homes that the brush fires destroyed last summer's have been
  - (E) Most of the homes destroyed in last summer's brush fires were being

Choice (A) is incorrect because the simple past were does not express the fact that the homes had been built before the fire destroyed them.

Choice (B) merely rearranges the wording while retaining the simple past were.

Choice (C) is the correct answer because it uses the past perfect had been to indicate that the homes were completely built before they were destroyed by the fires.

Choice (D) is incorrect because it uses the present perfect have been, which implies that the homes were destroyed before being built.

Choice (E) is incorrect. Although dropping the phrase that were makes the sentence more concise, the past progressive were being implies that the homes were destroyed while being built.

3. Although World War II ended nearly a half century ago, Russia and Japan still have not signed a formal peace treaty; and both countries have been reticent to develop closer relations.
- (A) have not signed a formal peace treaty; and both countries have been
  - (B) did not signed a formal peace treaty; and both countries have been
  - (C) have not signed a formal peace treaty; and both countries being
  - (D) have not signed a formal peace treaty; and both countries are
  - (E) are not signing a formal peace treaty; and both countries have been

The sentence is grammatical as written. The present perfect verb have ... signed correctly indicates that they have not signed a peace treaty and are not on the verge of signing one. Further, the present perfect verb have been correctly indicates that in the past both countries have been reluctant to develop closer relations and are still reluctant. The answer is (A).

In choice (B), the simple past did does not capture the fact that they did not sign a peace treaty immediately after the war and still have not signed one.

Choice (C) is very awkward, and the present progressive being does not capture the fact that the countries have been reluctant to thaw relations since after the war up through the present.

In choice (D), the present tense are leaves open the possibility that in the past the countries may have desired closer relations but now no longer do.

In choice (E), the present progressive tense are ... signing, as in choice (D), leaves open the possibility that in the past the countries may have desired closer relations but now no longer do.

4. The Democrats have accused the Republicans of resorting to dirty tricks by planting a mole on the Democrat's planning committee and then used the information obtained to sabotage the Democrat's campaign.
- (A) used the information obtained to sabotage
  - (B) used the information they had obtained to sabotage
  - (C) of using the information they had obtained to sabotage
  - (D) using the information obtained to sabotage
  - (E) to have used the information obtained to sabotage

Choice (A) is incorrect because the simple past obtained does not express the fact that the information was gotten before another past action—the sabotage.

Choice (B) is incorrect because used is not parallel to of resorting.

Choice (C) is correct because the phrase of using is parallel to the phrase of resorting. Further, the past perfect had obtained correctly expresses that a past action—the spying—was completed before another past action—the sabotage.

Choice (D) is incorrect because using is not parallel to of resorting and the past perfect is not used.

Choice (E) is incorrect because to have used is not parallel to of resorting and the past perfect is not used.

Solutions to Drill VI

1. Regarding legalization of drugs, I am not concerned so much by its potential impact on middle class America but instead by its potential impact on the inner city.
- (A) but instead
  - (B) so much as
  - (C) rather
  - (D) but rather
  - (E) as

The correct structure for this type of sentence is not so much by _____ as by _____. The answer is (E).

2. Unless you maintain at least a 2.0 GPA, you will not graduate medical school.

- (A) you will not graduate medical school.
- (B) you will not be graduated from medical school.
- (C) you will not be graduating medical school.
- (D) you will not graduate from medical school.
- (E) you will graduate medical school.

Choice (A) is incorrect. In this context, graduate requires the word from: “you will not graduate from medical school.”

The use of the passive voice in choices (B) and (C) weakens the sentence.

Choice (D) is the answer since it uses the correct idiom graduate from.

Choice (E) changes the meaning of the sentence and does not correct the faulty idiom.

3. The studio’s retrospective art exhibit refers back to a simpler time in American history.

- (A) The studio’s retrospective art exhibit refers back to
- (B) The studio’s retrospective art exhibit harkens back to
- (C) The studio’s retrospective art exhibit refers to
- (D) The studio’s retrospective art exhibit refers from
- (E) The studio’s retrospective art exhibit looks back to Choice (A) is incorrect. Retrospective means looking back on the past. Hence, in the phrase refers back, the word back is redundant.

Choice (B) is incorrect because harkens back is also redundant.

Choice (C) is correct. Dropping the word back eliminates the redundancy.

Choice (D) is incorrect because the preposition from is non-idiomatic.

Choice (E) is incorrect because looks back is also redundant.

4. Due to the chemical spill, the commute into the city will be delayed by as much as 2 hours.
- (A) Due to the chemical spill, the commute into the city will be delayed by as much as 2 hours.
  - (B) The reason that the commute into the city will be delayed by as much as 2 hours is because of the chemical spill.
  - (C) Due to the chemical spill, the commute into the city had been delayed by as much as 2 hours.
  - (D) Because of the chemical spill, the commute into the city will be delayed by as much as 2 hours.
  - (E) The chemical spill will be delaying the commute into the city by as much as 2 hours.

Choice (A) is incorrect. Although many educated writers and speakers begin sentences with due to, it is almost always incorrect.

Choice (B) is incorrect: it is both redundant and awkward.

Choice (C) is incorrect. The past perfect had been delayed implies the delay no longer exists. Hence, the meaning of the sentence has been changed.

Choice (D) is correct. In general, due to should not be used as a substitute for because of, owing to, by reason of, etc.

Choice (E) is incorrect. The future progressive will be delaying is unnecessary and ponderous. Had choice (E) used the simple future will delay, it would have been better than choice (D) because then it would be more direct and active.
