

3. Choose an expression that fits best in the sentence.

21. People often like or dislike a country because the visit was the of a successful or unsuccessful love affair.
a) occasion b) opportunity c) chance d) possibility
22. Some people believe they are learning a foreign language.
a) unable b) insufficient for c) unfit to d) incapable of
23. His limited command of English caused his request as a command.
a) that he phrased b) it that he phrased c) him phrasing d) him to phrase
24. Culture can be as that part of the environment that is the creation of man.
a) looked b) thought c) regarded d) realized
25. A humble cooking pot is a cultural product as is a Beethoven sonata.
a) such b) equally c) both d) as much
26. In ordinary speech, the cultural person is who can talk about James Joyce, Scarlatti, and Picasso.
a) one b) such c) that d) intellectual
27. There is culture in general, and then there are the specific cultures Russian, American, British, Hottentot, Inca.
a) e.g. b) as c) such as d) i.e.
28. If we understand our own culture and that of others, the political climate can be changed in a surprisingly short time men are wise enough.
a) unless b) in case c) under the condition d) providing
29. In sociological terms, culture does not refer solely to the fine arts and intellectual taste; it all objects and ideas within a society.
a) contains b) holds c) consists of d) belongs to 30. Experts are beginning to the drastic change of diet Indians went through in moving from independence to dependence on the white man.
a) see through b) look into c) come into d) look through

31. Diseases are killing Native Americans at far higher rates than others in the U.S.: twice 25 to 34-year-old Indians die from diabetes, for example.
a) the number b) as many c) more d) times
32. The English teacher has a unique to get to know other countries.
a) possibility b) occasion c) probability d) opportunity
33. They will come to know many people there a few months.
a) before b) within c) by d) to
34. For long stretches of time Gene would forget he was Japanese and would feel extremely uncomfortable when inevitably he would be it.
a) remembered about b) mentioned c) said d) reminded of 35. the Japanese stereotype, Gene's father freely vented his feelings.
a) Against b) As against c) Whereas d) Contrary to 36. Western interest in doing business; non-Western, in forming bonds so that business can begin.
a) lied b) lays c) lies d) laid
37. Our focus is on producing short-term profit;, on generating future favours.
a) they b) theirs c) their d) however 38. Cultural barriers are difficult, on generating
a) in crossing b) to be crossed c) to cross them d) to cross
39. Since I was to do business in local fashion, I was supposed to know their cultural traditions.
a) wanting b) willing c) thinking d) wishing
40. both his language and his culture, I lost an opportunity for a business deal and a personal relationship.
a) Not understanding b) By not understanding c) By misinterpreting d) As I did not understand