On the wooden bench, across from our school,
 is where you'd sit if you were a fool.
 That place was always engulfed by haze,
 because it was the famous "smoking place".
 Lots of students I knew had the zeal
 to sit there but I could never see the appeal.
 But choking, chain smoking and "ashing" cigars,
 made those other kids feel like superstars.
 I have to admit that some boys were cool,
 majority though - stupid and dull.

Rumor has it a kid got suspended,
 'cuz he was caught in the bathroom red-handed.
 Allegedly the dude was taking a drag,
 and as this hero was smoking his fag,
 the principal came, saying he felt the savor,
 but people believe he was ushered in by a traitor.
 The obscure motivations behind this action
 were never revealed, to our dissatisfaction. (satisfaction)
 Whatever the reason, he was banned for a week,
 but he never lamented his unbeatable streak.

Diana,
