

Paediatricians assess health condition of children. (evaluate, judge)

The model predicted probability that a mushroom is poisonous with 98% accuracy. (the)

I went to the shop again, because I needed to alter the T-shirt I bought. (unclear: alter / to change the size?)

He works on converting data stored in different data structures into one common data structure.

She stands a good chance of getting great job if she finishes her school.

He took a chance and bet a lot of money.

Do not mind me, just carry on.

Although everybody left, he stayed on.

He helped the older women up from the chair.

She helped her grandma out by washing dishes.

I have been developing a tool for machine translation between Czech, Slovak, and Polish since 2017.

Dandelions grow best in sunny places.

He reproduced all information gained from the text.

She raised money by selling her collection of stamps.

The costs of living have increased comparing to the last year.

Russia expanded to Crimea in 2014.

very nice! . Thanks, J-

about alter 2 meanings: to ¹divert direction ^{1/1} – alter the course of history after the planned course of action

more in Webster's plus synonyms
2) ²modify size – He altered his pants because they were too long.

Excellent.