

Class: FCE- Thursday 2 pm

Student: Pavel Kůs

Assignment 2: 15 words...15 sentences assess, predict, alter, convert, stand a chance, take a chance, carry on, stay on, help up, help out, develop, grow, gain, raise, increase, expand

Sentences:

His hard and two months long work was assessed by a great financial reward.

There was a new particle predicted, called 'graviton', which should be responsible for a gravitational interaction, but it hasn't been observed until these days.

I help an old lady up from the ground after she fell down during walking on the street.

A part of the school choir of teachers got sick so the school director was glad when I told him I would like to help them out.

After a bit tedious discussion with one my colleague-collaborator I persuaded him to alter some sections of our paper.

I needed to convert several photos from jpeg to pdf, because this was the only accepted way.

On our last lectures of quantum field theory we have developed a 'renormalization method', an important advance tool for calculations with one-loop Feynmann diagrams.

My mother usually tells me that I should grow up. But this is what makes our mothers our mothers, right?

I feel that I stand a chance to pass this FCE course :)

I will take all chances to do my best and perhaps be accepted to some great PhD position.

Before I am accepted to some PhD programme I need to gain more knowledge and pass several exams.

Before the Covid-19 the rental prices in Prague was raising steeply up at least for months.

Climate change causes that all the sea levels increase.

It has been proven that the universe is expanding rapidly.

The life is sometimes difficult and what one can do is just carry on and trust oneself.

I want and will stay on the academical ground and develop myself as a scientist.

→ doesn't work (see below) *1

yet. (up to now)

*2
see below
b

simple past
"our last lecture"
specific finished time.

better → "in academia"

Pavel,
most words well used!
hope these comments are clear & helpful
questions... write me
Thanks
↓

raise something /transitive verb/

rise.

/intransitive verb/
no direct object

So in this sentence:
the prices were rising steeply.
intransitive use.

* assess: to evaluate (often property)

→ He assessed the price of the building

② determine the value, importance, worth of sth

→ assess a problem
the damage

but not "assess by"
maybe here rewarded by

*2 "during her walk"
"while walking"
/participle/
fair +