

1. assess
 - If you want to sell your house, firstly you need an assessment of price.
2. predict
 - It was so predictable that ^{it} will be rainy.
3. alter
 - I hope these alterations aren't problem for you.
4. convert
 - You will probably need convert all files to different format to open it on your computer.
5. stand a chance
 - Have you stood a chance to meet the band?
6. take a chance
 - He took a chance ^{on} of new job in Mexico.
7. carry on
 - Could we please carry on? I don't have any time.
8. stay on
 - Would you like to stay on here?
9. help up
 - She offered to help her grandma up from the sofa.
10. help out
 - Help me out!
11. develop
 - On the second page you can see a graph of economy development.
12. grow
 - I've ^{grew} ~~grown~~ up in Czech Republic.
13. gain
 - You should gain 6 pounds to get to the next weight category for bench press.
14. raise
 - That will definitely raise your spirits!
15. increase
 - It is generally thought that this is due to increasing violence in movies.
16. expand
 - If you heat a gas, it expands.

better:

"a price assessment"

/ better: "Did you stand..." (simple past)

"Do you stand..." (present)

preposition:

"take a chance on"

it is finished time

the economic development is a noun. so what kind of is an adj. so the "economic develop"

/ simple past /

nice idiom!

"grow" - noun-count noun / no indefinite article / a /

Nicely done...

- good use of vocab...

- be careful with the "pres. perfect tense" see above

Questions ... ask me!

Thanks!

Good!