

1. assess: We need to assess the cost of the regulation correctly. ✓
2. predict: It is really hard to predict what will happen next. ✓
3. help up: I often help my grandma up from her wheelchair. ✓
4. help out: Can you please help me out? It is really heavy and my hands are shaking. ✓
5. alter: Beyonce's alter ego is Sasha. /nice! /
6. convert: My brother ~~have~~ ^{was} converted to judaism because of his future bride. ✓
7. develop: We need to develop ^{/a/} better logistic ^{/sing noun/} system. ✓
8. grow: Come on, be a man and grow up! ✓
9. stand a chance: We ~~have~~ never stood a chance, they had better weapons. ✓ past tense if they had, then not up to now
10. take a chance: I have never run marathon, but there is one tomorrow and I will take a chance. ✓
11. gain: My sister started to run everyday, after she had gained weight. ✓
12. raise: Since you have been so hard working, I will give you a raise. ✓ w.o. "hard" here is an adverb that can't go mid-sentence (before the verb)
13. increase: It cannot increase exponentially. ✓
14. carry on: No matter what happens, we need to carry on. ✓
15. stay on: I have decided to stay on at dormitory, even though most of my friends went home. ✓
16. expand: I know that we have planned to expand to Spain, but I think we should not do it now. ✓ well done!!

you understood and use
all the vocabulary well and often idiomatically...

Thanks, J -

[In no. 12 the idea of adverb placement
is ficky business... some can be mid-sentence:
but "hard" as an adverb must come at the end of a clause.
/He works hard/.

(adverbs of frequency: often) (adverbs of manner ending
in (ly)
He quickly eats.

Excellent.