

DE-SUGGESTOPEDIA

bright, cheerful classrooms with comfortable chairs	The students must feel comfortable during the lesson, so the whole environment of the class is important.	✓ X "It was not so possible during this online lesson." "How do you feel today?" teacher-centred	The teacher is the main authority of the class → he/she is active, self-confident and positive.	✓ musical background	The choice of music is important → music should not be aggressive.	✓ intonation and rhythm	Teacher's voice must be calm.	✓ self-confidence of students	The students are not forced to speak until they feel comfortable to talk.	✓ "How do you feel today?"
using pictures, visuals, gestures and other materials	The teacher uses pictures, visuals and gestures for better imagination.	✓
	The teacher uses written dialogues, vocabulary lists, vocabulary pairs (translation to mother tongue) and grammatical commentary.	✓
new names	There are new identities for learners with target language names.	✓ X "Only teachers had different names." error tolerance	Errors are tolerated.	✓
reproducing texts	The students reproduce big chunks of text.	✓ dialogue	The activities are mostly based on dialogues.	✓ advantages	self- confidence of students; the calm and relaxed atmosphere of the class; music as a motivation disadvantages	not sure about the activity of students; it could be quite boring to do it for a longer period of time; no hard work; a lot of acquisition → not so much producing