

Tomáš Rabas, VD CAE 4

- 1) dripping ✓
- 2) pelting ✓
- 3) gurgling ✓
- 4) pour ✓
- 5) splash ✓
- 6) lap ✓
- 7) flows ✓
- 8) gushing ✓
- 9) seeped ✓
- 10) trickling ✓

We noticed that oil was dripping out of the car when we stopped on the parking spot.

A nurse came to visit her patient and check his drip in the arm.

Politicians were pelting with eggs with tomatoes because of their decision. / good!

My stomach gurgled as I was very hungry. nice!

The water from a sink gurgled down the drain

The splash headline in the newspapers took my attention. / better as verb: "The headline splashed across the newspaper...."

nice! There was a splash of colors as the flowers bloomed everywhere.

Politicians pour the money into solar power plants as they want to decrease the pollution of carbon dioxide.

I was sitting on the shore and listening to the calming lap of the waves.

The gush of blood soiled everything around as the knife was taken out of his leg. ouch!

The blood was seeping through the bandage that was soaking it.

In the past weeks, immigration dropped to a trickle as the virus started to be a threat. nice!

well done!

good idioms —

Thanks, P —

Excellent.