

The Lake Isle of Innisfree

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made:
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey-bee;
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

Liquids splash into things
you splash into
you splash into

Pelt -> During the 15th century, redheads women were pelted with charges of witchcraft. nice!

Splash -> The news of coronavirus is splashed on all first pages newspapers. nice!

Splash -> Due to the moisture near the swimming pool, I splashed into loudly.

Seep -> The COVID-19 seeps through the world. what? -> into the paddles, water...?

Seep -> Filtration is one of the techniques to separate solid from liquid, because the liquid seeps through the small pores of the filter and the solid not.

Drip -> The news of coronavirus is dripping everywhere. / doesn't work..

Drip -> The spider drips slowly near my head. / "liquid" not "spiders drip"...

good work.
Some nice idioms!
Thanks :-)

different verb "to drop"
"the spider dropped..."
good.
